The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 10, to Saturday June 14, 1746.

Whitehall, June 11.

THIS Day an Expreſs arrived from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, with the following Advices.

Fort Auguſtus, June 5. Lord George Sackville and Major Wilſon are marched to the Barrack of Bernera with 500 Foot, from whence they are to proceed Southward along the Coaſt, till they come over againſt the Head of Loch-Arkek, where Lieutenant Colonel Cornwallis is with another Body of 300 Men. From thence the two Corps are to proceed Southwards through the Countries of the Mac Donalds of Moidart and Knoidart, whilſt Captain Scot, with the old Garriſon of Fort William, which was relieved two Days ago by Brigadier General Houghton's Regiment, will advance from the South to meet them; and Major General Campbell, or the Officer commanding the Argyllſhire Militia in his Abſence, is to ſcour the Country about Mingary Caſtle. It is to be hoped this Force will diſperſe the ſmall Remains of the Rebels, if any of them ſhould be got together. His Royal Highneſs propoſes to wait here the Return of this Detachment, and that will prevent his marching from hence ſo ſoon as he otherwiſe would have done. By this Time all the Rebel Priſoners are ſailed for Newcaſtle. His Royal Highneſs has authentick Intelligence, that the Pretender's Son embarked in a ſmall Boat three or four Days after the Action of Culloden for Long Iſland, from whence he was dodging backwards and forwards in a ſmall Veſſel, even ſome Time after the French Ships were off the Coaſt. There are alſo confirm'd Accounts received from ſeveral Parts, that the Rebels are now totally diſperſed, and that that there are not, in any Part, 50 of them together.

At the ſame Time the following Advices were received by Expreſs from Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, June 8. The Embarkation of the Heſſian Troops will be finiſhed this Night, ſo that they will be ready to ſail To-morrow.

By Letters from Inverary we are informed, that on the 27th of laſt Month General Campbell ſailed with 1000 choice Argyllſhire Men from Dunſtafnage, and that Night anchored in Tabermory Bay in Mull, and next Day arrived at Stronhan, the Heart of Lochiel's Clan, where Mr. Cameron of Dungallon brought in his Men and Arms to Major General Campbell, and with them ſurrendered to the King's Mercy. The Inhabitants of Morvern and Ardnamurchan are doing the ſame. Lochiel, with his Uncle Ludowick, Murray the Secretary, and ſome others, are on the North Side of Lochiel with no great Attendance, and muſt ſoon quit their Quarters.

Kenſington, June 14.

The following Addreſs of the Merchants, Traders, and others, of the City of London, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Peter Burrell, Eſq; attended by a Committee of Merchants appointed for that Purpoſe.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants, Traders, and others, of the City of London.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants, Traders, and others, of your City of London, with Hearts warmed with the ſincereſt Joy, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Throne, and, amidſt the general Satisfaction of a truly grateful People, to preſent our particular Congratulations upon the late happy Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, in the Suppreſſing a moſt wicked and unnatural Rebellion.

The fatal Blow thereby attempted to be given to the Trade and publick Credit of this Nation, gave us the greateſt Concern; And it is with equal Pleaſure we find that Blow averted, and Trade and publick Credit (which has ſo long flouriſhed under your Majeſty's auſpicious ſpicious Government) again reſtored and ſecured to us.

We are highly ſenſible of the glorious Conſequences, which will redound to this Kingdom from this great Event; and when we conſider the heroick Part his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland has acted in it, we promiſe ourſelves, that lateſt Poſterity will enjoy the Fruits of this ſignal Victory, and a laſting Happineſs be entailed upon your People, by a long Succeſſion of your Royal Progeny.

May your Majeſty's invaluable Life be long preſerved —— May your Councils be proſpered, to the full Detection of the traiterous Deſigns of your Enemies, and the Strengthening of our common Security —— And may the Crown flouriſh in your Majeſty's Royal Houſe till Time ſhall be no more.

To which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for the repeated Marks of your Zeal and Affection for my Perſon and Government. Your Congratulations on the Succeſs of my Arms, under the Command of my Son the Duke, againſt the Rebels, are very agreeable to me; and you may be aſſured, I ſhall always have at Heart the Welfare and Proſperity of the Trade of my Kingdoms.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, having been tranſmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Durham, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Lord Lieutenant, the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, and the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham,

Humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the late moſt important and glorious Victory, obtained by his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, over your Majeſty's moſt perfidious and rebellious Subjects, influenced and ſupported by the united Malice of the Houſe of Bourbon, the avowed Enemies of Liberty; and for that Reaſon only, the conſtant Enemies of your Majeſty and your Kingdoms; without whoſe Ruin and Deſtruction they can never hope to impoſe their deteſted Yoke of univerſal Bondage.

When therefore we reflect upon a Rebellion, founded in the Ambition of thoſe Powers, and big with all the Miſchiefs which Popery and Slavery can bring upon a Free and Proteſtant Nation, we are deeply ſenſible of our great Deliverance from the Dangers which threatened us, and approach your ſacred Perſon with the moſt ſincere Expreſſions of Joy and Gratitude: We thankfully acknowledge your Majeſty's Goodneſs and early Care in ſending an Army under the Command of Marſhal Wade for our Security; but your tender Regard for your People, in hazarding the precious Life of your Son for their Safety, raiſes in us the higheſt Emotions of Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty, not only as our King, but as our common Father.

Permit us, on this Occaſion alſo, to rejoice in the riſing Glory of your Majeſty's Arms, under the wiſe and valiant Conduct of his Royal Highneſs: From the happy Defeat of Rebellious Inſolence we preſage greater Things; and doubt not but, under the Protection of Heaven, as he has already been a Terror to Rebels at Home, he will prove the Scourge of your Majeſty's Enemies Abroad, and the Avenger of Violence and Oppreſſion.

May inteſtine Diviſions and Commotions never interrupt or obſtruct your Majeſty's Deſigns for the publick Good; and may Succeſs attend your unwearied Endeavours to reſtore the Bleſſings of a ſolid and laſting Peace to theſe Nations, and to all Europe. The Experience of the Juſtice and Clemency of your Majeſty's Government ſufficiently juſtifies the Wiſdom of our Anceſtors in the Settlement of the Crown of theſe Realms upon your illuſtrious Houſe. May your Majeſty long wear it to your own Glory, and the Happineſs of your Subjects; and may there never be wanting one of your Royal Blood to fill your Majeſty's Throne with equal Juſtice and Virtue, to defend the Faith and Liberties of your People, and to vindicate the Rights of Mankind.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham, having been tranſmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Durham, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen,

Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly crave Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the late happy and glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, againſt your rebellious Subjects in Scotland, aſſiſted by your moſt inveterate Enemies to our happy Conſtitution.

It is with Hearts full of the ſincereſt Gratitude, that we acknowledge your Majeſty's Paternal Regard for the Good of your dutiful Subjects, in the appointing of his Royal Highneſs the Duke to take the Command of your Majeſty's Arms at ſo critical a Juncture; whoſe inimitable Expedition to that important Service, ſurmounting all Difficulties to come at your Enemies, diſplaying the General by his Prudence and Conduct, and demonſtrating his Courage and Bravery, in the Time of the greateſt Danger, has, by the Bleſſing of the Almighty, obtained a compleat Victory, which cannot fail of rendering him amiable to all your Majeſty's Subjects, and in a particular Manner to us, who are thereby deliver'd from the terrible Apprehenſions of Rapine and Plunder.

This Attempt of your Enemies, how wickedly ſoever contrived and intended to ſhake your Majeſty's Throne, will, we hope, be the Means to eſtabliſh it the more firmly in your Majeſty's Royal Houſe.

May the Divine Providence guard and protect your Majeſty's precious Life to reign long over us, give Succeſs to your Councils and Arms againſt all your Enemies; and may there never be wanting a Prince of your Majeſty's Blood to vindicate the Right to your Britiſh Throne, and maintain the Liberty of your Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Joſeph Gulſton, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Great Sir,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of your ancient and ever loyal Town and County of Poole, beg Leave to throw ourſelves at your ſacred Feet, with the ſincereſt Congratulations, on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Forces, under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, againſt your Rebellious Subjects, though aſſiſted by two great Powers, who are ſenſible they cannot prevail againſt us, nor enſlave Europe but by dividing us.

We beg Leave likewiſe, Royal Sir, to congratulate you on the great and ſignal Bleſſing with which Providence favour'd your righteous Cauſe, on that glorious and memorable Day, in the Preſervation of his Royal Highneſs, (though always in the Heat of Battle) to be a Terror to all deſperate and unnatural Rebels and Enemies to your ſacred Majeſty and our happy Conſtitution.

May that ſame Providence ſtill continue to watch over your ſacred Majeſty; may it proſper your Arms Abroad as it has at Home; and when late, very late, you ſhall be taken to a more glorious and eternal Kingdom, may there never be wanting a Prince in your Auguſt Family to ſway the Sceptre of theſe Kingdoms, which you have ſo glorioufly and triumphantly preſerved from Popiſh Slavery, and to tranſmit down our Liberties to all ſucceeding Generations.

Poole, June 4, 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Roſs, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Argyll, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Roſs, met in Synod, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmeſt Congratulations on the happy Occaſion of ſuppreſſing the late unnatural Rebellion, by the Bleſſing of God on your Majeſty's Arms, under the Heroick Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, ſo illuſtrious a Branch of your Auguſt Houſe.

Senſible of our own and the Nation's Happineſs, under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign and indulgent Government; with what Horror and Surprize did we look on the audacious and ungrateful Attempt of thoſe who were ſo infatuate as to concur in a Rebellion againſt ſuch a Government, in Favours of a popiſh Pretender, ſupported by France, and other popiſh Powers.

As Members of a Church, under the ſtrongeſt Obligations to diſtinguiſh herſelf by a firm and zealous Adherence to the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's Family, our Duty, our Principles, our moſt valuable Intereſts, determined us to exert ourſelves in teſtifying againſt ſo horrid an Inſurrection, and warning our Congregations of the Sin and Danger of it, at our utmoſt Peril: And though, with deep Regret, we obſerve too many in our Bounds concurring in it, and ſome of them of conſiderable Rank in the Country; yet with Pleaſure we can aſſure your Majeſty, that few of them were of our Communion; that, on the contrary, many Families of greateſt Power amongſt us oppoſed it to the utmoſt; ſome of the oldeſt Families in the Country, no leſs eminent for their untainted Loyalty than ſteady Adherence to Revolution Principles, have ſuffered deeply both in their Lives and Fortunes in ſo good a Cauſe; and many of inferiour Rank chearfully took Arms in Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, the great Bulwark, under God, of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and underwent the greateſt Hardſhips by the Cruelty and Ravage of lawleſs Men, by which they are reduced to the moſt calamitous Condition.

That our Gracious God, who has ſet your Majeſty at the Head of a Proteſtant Intereſt, and ſo remarkably protected your Majeſty's Perſon hitherto, may continue to multiply his Bleſſings on your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Royal Houſe, direct your Councils, give Succeſs to your Arms, againſt all Enemies foreign and domeſtick: That all their wicked Attempts to ſhake your Majeſty's Throne, and diſturb the Peace of your Kingdoms, may prove vain and abortive, and iſſue in the further Eſtabliſhment of the one, and greater Repoſe and Tranquillity of the other: That He, by whom Kings reign, may make your Reign long and proſperous in His Fear, and to His Glory, over a brave, free and loyal People, and perpetuate the Happineſs of it to theſe Nations in your Auguſt Family, is and ſhall be the moſt fervent Prayer of,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Roſs, aſſembled at Cromertie this Twenty third Day of April 1746.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by Joſeph Munro, Moderator.

The following Addreſs of the Barons, Freeholders and other Gentlemen of the County of Elgin and Forres in North Britain, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Ludowick Grant, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Barons, Freeholders, and other Gentlemen of the County of Elgin and Forres in North Britain, now aſſembled in a County Meeting, for the firſt Time ſince the Riſe of the preſent unnatural and ungrateful Rebellion, humbly beg Leave to declare our utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of that wicked and daring Attempt in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender, ſolemnly renounced and abjured by this Nation; an Attempt that is big with every Evil which can undo a free People, and ſubvert our ineſtimable Privileges both Civil and Sacred.

At the ſame Time we, with Hearts full of Joy, congratulate your Majeſty upon the ſignal Victory, ſo lately obtain'd by your Majeſty's Arms under the Command and Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, over theſe unnatural Rebels: A Victory ſo cheap to your Majeſty's Forces, ſo ſeaſonable to your oppreſſed Subjects, and ſo compleat over theſe audacious Rebels, that it cannot but perpetuate the Glory of his Royal Highneſs, as, under your Majeſty, the Deliverer of our Country, and Defender of our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

It is with the greateſt Pleaſure that we can aſſure your Majeſty, that there has not one Freeholder or Gentleman of Diſtinction in this our County joined in this Rebellious Inſurrection; and that our unſhaken Loyalty and firm Adherence to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, has expoſed us to the Violence and Rage of the Rebels, and made our County ſuffer as much as any County in North-Britain.

But, ſenſible that thoſe invaluable Bleſſings which we have hitherto enjoy'd under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, can only be ſecured to us by the Stability of your Throne, and of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, we are firmly reſolved to concur in every Meaſure conducive to theſe great Ends, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

That the Almighty may bleſs and preſerve your Perſon, proſper your Councils, give Succeſs to your Arms, reſtore Tranquillity to your Realms, eſtabliſh your Throne on the firmeſt Foundations, and perpetuate to lateſt Poſterities our preſent Bleſſings, by a never-failing Succeſſion in your Royal Line, is and ever muſt be the ardent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed in our Preſence, in our County Meeting in Elgin, this 17th Day of May 1746, by our Preſes.

The

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of Bideford, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Lewis Stucley, Eſq; their Recorder, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of Bideford.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of Bideford, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the glorious Succeſs of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, againſt the Rebels in Scotland.

Without this Succeſs, Britain might have had no other Security for the free Exerciſe of the Proteſtant Religion, but the Indulgence of Rome; and no other Security of her Trade and her ancient Rights and Liberties, but the Arbitrary Power of France; ſo that without this Succeſs, our Church might have been reduced under the Dominion of a Vicar General of Rome, and our State and Civil Government under a French Vice-roy: But your Majeſty, in abundant Goodneſs to your People, hath been pleaſed, by Means of a Royal Branch of your own illuſtrious Family, to deliver us from all theſe Dangers which threaten'd us.

May all Officers of this Realm, however dignified or diſtinguiſhed, imitate the great and heroic Example of the Duke.—May they, with true Loyalty to your Majeſty, and Duty to their Country, in their ſeveral Stations, behave as they ought to do.—And that your Majeſty may long reign, for the Glory and Protection of Britain, and of all our juſt Rights and Liberties; and that all our Poſterity may be bleſſed with a perpetual Succeſſion of Royal Branches of your illuſtrious Family to the Crown of this Kingdom, for the Security of our glorious and happy Conſtitution, is our hearty and united Prayer.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff, Recorder, Bailiff's Peers and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Wenlock, in the County of Salop, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Iſaac Hawkins Brown and Brook Forreſter, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE the Bailiff, Recorder, Bailiff's Peers and Burgeſſes of your ancient and loyal Corporation of Wenlock, in the County of Salop, at our Common Hall aſſembled, beg Leave to join in the general Congratulations on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms againſt the Rebels: An Event which cannot but give the higheſt Satisfaction to all who know the Value of being a Proteſtant and a Free People.

It was indeed aſtoniſhing to find, that any who call themſelves Proteſtants, could be ſo far infatuated, as to renounce your Majeſty's mild and gracious Protection, in Exchange for the worſt of Calamities, Popery, and a Foreign Yoke.

But we promiſe ourſelves, that the late Dangers to which we were expoſed, will have no other Effect, than that of uniting your Majeſty's faithful Subjects more ſtrongly, if poſſible, in Support of their preſent Happineſs; and that your Majeſty's Government (far from being weakened by the Conſequences of this inteſtine Miſchief) will derive new Strength and Stability from thoſe very Means that were uſed to ſubvert it.

Permit us, Sir, to acknowledge your Goodneſs, in appointing his Royal Righneſs the Duke to put in Force thoſe Meaſures which your Majeſty's Wiſdom had formed for the publick Safety.

And though it could not be doubted but that this Rebellion would end in the Confuſion of thoſe engaged in it; yet the putting ſo ſpeedy and ſo ſeaſonable an End to it, was a Task worthy of his Royal Highneſs to undertake, and to be expected only from his diſtinguiſhed Vigilance, Courage and Conduct.

May your Majeſty and your Royal Progeny continue to reign over theſe Kingdoms till Time ſhall be no more.

And may there never be wanting to your Majeſty's Succeſſors a Deſcendant of your Royal Houſe to go forth with their Armies, and to be at once an Ornament to their Throne, and a Defence to their People.

Given under the Common Seal of our ſaid Corporation, the ſixth Day of June, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe in the County of Bucks, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Edmund Waller, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe in the County of Bucks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Succeſs of your Arms, and the putting an End to the Rebellion by the Conduct and Bravery of his Royal Highneſs the Duke.

A Rebellion raiſed and ſupported by our Foreign Enemies for Views of their own, (in which they have been too ſucceſsful) at the Expence of a deluded and infatuated People; whoſe dear bought Experience, of truſting in the Support and being the Tools only of Foreign Powers, muſt the more firmly eſtabliſh and confirm to us and our Poſterity the Bleſſings of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty and your Royal Family; and we are the more fully convinced of it, and Foreign Nations muſt be ſo, from that Zeal and Duty that has ſo manifeſtly appear'd in all your Subjects of this Part of your united Kingdom, and how vain any future Attempts muſt be againſt your Majeſty, your Royal Family, and all that is dear and valuable to a Proteſtant and Free People.

Given under our Hands and Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation, the fifth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1746.

Petersbourg, May 10. On Thurſday laſt, at the Summer Palace, General Bredlach had his Audience of her Imperial Majeſty, as Ambaſſador from the Emperor and Empreſs Queen of Hungary.

Stockholm, May 23, O. S. The King is at preſent at Carlsberg, the Prince and Princeſs at Ulrickſthal, and moſt of the Senators in the Country. Towards the latter End of laſt Week, the King and Senate iſſued a Proclamation, ſummoning the Diet to meet here at Stockholm upon the 15th of September next.

Vienna, June 8, N. S. The two Armies before Placentia continue to cannonade each other, but hitherto without any Effect. The Spaniards have paſſed the Po with a conſiderable Detachment, whereupon M. de Roth is retired to Pizzighitone, but with an Intention to return to his Poſt at Fiombio, as ſoon as the Enemy ſhall have retired over the Bridge at Placentia with whatever Booty they ſhall have found in that Corner of the Milaneſe. Prince Lichtenſtein has in the mean Time intercepted two Spaniſh Couriers, by which he has been inform'd of the Streights M. de Gages is in for Want of Proviſions; which is ſo great, as to have obliged him to ſend away a great Part of his Cavalry; and it is diſcover'd by the ſame Letters, that M. Maillebois remain'd expoſed to the Piedmonteſe with only fourteen Battalions.

Berlin, June 4, N. S. Yeſterday, very early in the Morning, young Count Podewils ſet out for Vienna, as did ſome Days before M. St. Saurin, the King's Aid de Camp, for the French Camp in Flanders.

Berlin, June 7, N. S The King of Pruſſia is to leave Pyrmont upon the 8th Inſtant, and to be at Potſdam upon the 10th. Upon the 12th he comes hither, and will dine at the Queen Mother's. Upon the 4th Inſtant M. Rudiger, Counſellor to Count Promnitz did Homage here, in his Maſter's Name, for the Seignory of Pleſſe in Sileſia, to Count Podewils, and the Miniſter of State M. Arnim, Repreſentatives of his Pruſſian Majeſty.

Berlin, June 11, N. S. The Prince of Pruſſia went upon the 9th Inſtant to Potſdam, in order to meet the King there the next Day. His Majeſty is expected here the 14th or 15th.

Copenhagen, June 11, N. S. The laſt Poſt from Norway brings Advice from his Britannick Majeſty's Conſul at Bergen, that thirteen Perſons had been ſeized upon the 24th of laſt Month, and were confined there upon Suſpicion of having been concerned in the Rebellion in Scotland. Private Advices ſay, that after the Battle of Culloden they had ſeized upon a ſmall Sloop belonging to Dundee; and, by threatening to ſhoot the Maſter, James Weems, had forced him to ſet Sail with them for Gottenberg; but the Wind turning contrary, they were obliged to put into the River of Bergen, where they were taken, and committed to the Caſtle.

Liege, June 10, N. S. Our Commiſſary, who has follow'd the French Army to before Mons with General D'Etres, confirms the Inveſtiture of that Place. Upon the 7th the French advanced to within Cannon-ſhot of that Town. M. D'Etres narrowly eſcaped being killed by a Cannon Ball from the Ramparts. The French reckon'd they ſhould be able to block up the Town by the 9th. The Garriſon conſiſts of about 5000 Men. The Prince of Conti, who is arrived at Maubeuge, was expected to command at the Siege.

Bruſſels, June 10, N. S. By Letters of the laſt Poſt from Rochelle, the Breſt Squadron was detained at the Iſles of Aic by contrary Winds. The French King is expected at Verſailles upon the.

the 15th or 16th. We have Advices from Italy of the 28th of last Month, that the Army under Marshal Maillebois was entered into the Genoese Territory.

Brussels, June 13, N. S. The Brest Squadron still continues in the Road of Aic near Rochelle. We have Advice from Italy, that the Sardinian Tro ops were preparing to invest Tortona; and we expect every Moment to hear of an Action between the Austrian and Spanish Armies near Placentia. We hear from Nantes, that on the 6th Instant N. S. the Mars and Bellona, two Ships which were some Time ago sent to Scotland with Supplies for the Pretender's Son, returned thither. They were attacked in the Bay of Loch Noway by an English Frigat and two English Sloops, which, after an Engagement of five Hours, were obliged to retire. Several Passengers arrived on Board the above Vessels, and amongst others, Lord John Drummond, Mess. Sheridan, Sullivan, and Lochiel jun. The Duke of Perth died in his Passage. They brought no News of the Pretender's Son. On Thursday last 105 Carriages for Ordnance arrived here from Antwerp by Land, and an equal Number of Cannon of the largest Bore came the next Day by Water. 'Tis believed that this Artillery is intended to be used in the Sieges of Charleroy and Namur, after the Taking of Mons, from whence there is a continual Fire on the Besiegers, who have drained the Waters, and begun to erect their Batteries. The French King set out from this Place for Versailles last Sunday Morning. The Army under Marshal Saxe is encamped with their Right three Leagues beyond Antwerp, and their Left extends above Liere.

Brussels, June 16. The French began to fire upon Mons the Day before Yesterday. The Army under the Prince of Conti is in full March to cover the Siege of that Town, and the Prince himself is to command the Siege. The French Garrison which is at Louvain is preparing to leave that Place, not being able to sustain the frequent Skirmishes they are exposed to from the Pandours and Hussars.

Brussels, June 20, N. S. It now appears, that the French lost above 400 Men upon the 14th Instant, in the Neighbourhood of Hoogstraten, their Avant Guard having been attacked with so much Fury by the Austrians, that the Grenadiers of the Regiment Royal Vaisseaux, the Uhlans, and the Dragoons of Saxe, were almost entirely cut to Pieces. A Corps of 3000 Austrian Light Troops having, upon Thursday last, advanced to the Gates of Louvain, the French Garriso , after a vigorous Defence of three Hours, was obliged to retire out of that Town. The French before Mons continue firing very briskly from three different Places upon that Town; and the Besieged defend themselves with great Resolution. All the Boats upon this Canal have been stopp'd, and are to be sent towards Antwerp, in order for building of Bridges over the Schelde. We have Advice from Paris of the 17th Instant, that the Brest Squadron remained off the Isles of Aic upon the 11th.

Campveer, June 11. About a Fortnight ago Commodore Mitchel chaced on Shore near Gravelines a French Ship of 24 Guns bound for Dunkirk. Since that the Commodore has chaced on Shore near Blankenberg a large French Cutter. She had been to Scotland with Officers and Money, and had landed her Money and three of the Officers; but being ordered farther North, was met with and chaced.

Camp at Terhyde, June 14, N.S. We learn by our latest Advices, that the French Army is posted in the Lines near Antwerp, under the Command of Count Saxe, and that a Body of 40,000 Men has been detached from the same, under the Command of M. Lowendahl, who first seemed to intend to invest Charleroy, but has quitted that, and invested Mons. It is reported the French King was to leave the Army on Sunday last. The first Division of Hanoverians arrived in Camp on Sunday, and the 4th and last comes in To-morrow. Their Corps are very compleat, and in perfect good Order. The greatest Part of the Dutch Troops, that were taken Prisoners at Brussels, have found Means to escape, and are come back to several of the Dutch Garrisons. A very great Desertion continues from the French Army.

Camp at Terhyde, June 17, N. S. On the 14th Count Saxe advanced with a reconnoitring Party of 22 Companies of Grenadiers, and some Regiments of Horse towards Hoogstraten, and detached 1200 Uhlans, Part Horse and Part Foot, as his advanced Guard. Some advanced Parties of our Hussars, to the Number of about 400, having Intelligence of them, immediately attacked and pushed them, till they retired towards their main Body: They have killed a Major and three Lieutenants, and taken two Captains and 65 Men Prisoners, with little or no Loss on our Side. The Number of the Enemy killed and wounded amounts to about 300. The Command at Hoogstraten, under General Baronay, was Yesterday reinforced by a Major General with 1600 Foot and 600 Horse.

Camp at Terhyde, June 21. We have no certain Accounts of the Progress the French have made in their Attack upon Mons. They made an Attempt to take St. Guilain by Surprise, but were disappointed: The Garrison of that Place consists of about 400 Men; and we reckon the Garrison of Mons about 5000. The Inundations there are very high. The main Body of the French Army continues in the same Position

Poſition between Lier and Antwerp, but Marſhal Saxe has poſted a Detachment between Antwerp and Bergen op Zoom. Upon the 18th the Enemy made a Forage towards Hoogſtraten; and 8 or 9000 Men, with four Pieces of Cannon, were ordered to cover the Foragers. The Detachment under Colonel Franquin loſt but 25 Men, the Remainder of the 100 that were miſſing having join'd them next Day.

Hague, June 14, N. S. The French King is returned for a ſhort Time to Verſailles. The French are ſaid to have open'd the Trenches before Mons on the 9th Inſtant. Notwithſtanding the Arrival of his Britannick Majeſty's Hanoverian Troops, the laſt Diviſion of which marches into Camp To morrow, and the daily expected Return of the Heſſian Infantry, whoſe Recruits and Cloathing are waiting for them at Boiſleduc, Marſhal Saxe dares ſtill make conſiderable Detachments towards the Sambre and the Meuſe; and he has, within theſe ten Days, foraged all the Country on this Side Brabant, with a View, as it is thought, of rendering it the more difficult for Marſhal Bathiani to advance. The ſix Regiments of Infantry, belonging to the Auſtrian Reinforcements in March from the Empire, together with about 2000 Recruits, will embark on the 20th of this Month at Cologn; where Boats and Proviſions are, as is ſaid, all lying ready for them. For the more plentiful Supply of the Allied Army, whilſt it lays upon the Republick's Territory, the States General have granted a general Franchiſe for all Sorts of Neceſſaries carried to it, and ſold there.

Hague, June 17, N. S. The Siege of Mons is ſuppoſed to be carrying on, but no Particulars of its Progreſs are known here. On Wedneſday a ſmart Skirmiſh happen'd in the Neighbourhood of Hoogſtraten, between a Party of 3 or 400 Auſtrian Huſſars, and a Detachment of 1000 Oulans, which was eſcorting Marſhal Saxe on a reconnoitring Party. The latter are ſaid to have been routed with a conſiderable Loſs, and the Marſhal to have had ſome Difficulty to diſengage himſelf. The States General have named M. Hochepied, a Magiſtrate of Harlem, and a near Relation of their Conſul at Smyrna, for their Ambaſſador at the Ottoman Porte. The Letters from the Armies in Italy, of the 3d Inſtant, bring nothing very material.

Hague, June 21, N. S. Nothing of Conſequence has paſſed upon the Frontier lately, except a little Skirmiſh near Louvain between ſome advanced Parties of Huſſars of the two Armies. The Corps of Auſtrians in March for the Rhine to join the Allied Army in the Netherland, was expected at Coblentz upon the 19th paſt. The Auſtrians in Italy have forced two Poſts, called Ripalta and Montechiaro, which are repreſented as conſiderable.
